

Georgia Jail Association

PO Box 490938

Lawrenceville, GA 30049

By Laws

(Revised June 2017)

It is the consensus of the governing body of Georgia Jail Association that all terminology referring to gender with-in these Bylaws shall be generic, (e.g. him is used instead of him/her; he is used instead of he/she; Chairman is used instead of Chairperson, etc.)

ARTICLE I - PURPOSE

The purposes of the Association, as stated in its Certificate of Incorporation, are:

Section 1. To band together all those concerned with or interested in the custody and care of persons awaiting trial, serving sentences, or otherwise locally confined, to improve the conditions and systems under which such persons are detained.

Section 2. To advance professionalism through training, information exchange, technical assistance, publication and conferences.

Section 3. To instill jail standards established by Georgia Sheriffs and present those standards through training, information exchange, programs and services.

Section 4. To present and advance the interests, needs, concerns and proficiency of the professional as deemed appropriate by the membership and their representatives.

Section 5. Each local agency will strive to include in their yearly budget funds for paying for "full membership" in American Jail Association and the Georgia Jail Association for appropriate jail staff.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERS

Section 1. MEMBER

It was decided that the Georgia Jail Association would have two (2) categories for members:

A. Professional - Voting Member:

Local (being city or county, Sheriff's Department/Police Department), jails and adult detention facilities employees interested in the purposes of the Association whose application for membership shall be accepted and who shall pay the prescribed fees and dues.

1. All serving Sheriffs of the State of Georgia shall be considered members of the Georgia Jail Association as an Honorary Member.

B. Affiliate Members - Nonvoting:

All other persons interested in the purposes of the Association whose application for membership shall be accepted and who shall pay the prescribed fee and dues.

Section 2. VOTING

Each "Professional" member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the membership.

Section 3. APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

- A. An application for Active Membership shall be made upon the official application blank of the Association.
- B. Application for Membership, which may include memberships through affiliate organizations, shall be forwarded to the Treasure with annual dues and assessments in the amount as established by the Board.
- C. In the event an application is rejected, such dues and assessments as accompanied the application shall be returned to the applicant.
- D. If the applicant is accepted, he or she shall be notified by the Secretary of acceptance of membership who shall forward forthwith a certificate of membership and a current membership card, along with a copy of the Bylaws of this Association and other appropriate documents as directed by the Officers and the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III - MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1. ANNUAL MEETING

An Annual statewide meeting of the membership shall be held each year, for the purpose of electing members of the Board of Directors and officers, and to transact other such business as may come before the meeting. Such conference shall be held following the Annual Training Conference of the American Jail Association, as scheduled in a reasonable and timely manner based on state level conference limitations. When reasonable, the conference shall be held within sixty -days (60) after the AJA conference.

- A. The annual Business Meeting of the Association shall be held at the annual conference meeting on call of the President.
- B. The President of the Association shall conduct the business meeting and the Secretary shall keep a full, accurate account of the proceedings.
- C. The business meeting shall be guided by the Manual of Roberts Rules of Order (revised) and the order of proceedings shall be as follows:
  - 1. Calling the meeting to order by the President.
  - 2. Invocation by the Chaplain
  - 3. Addresses of Welcome
  - 4. Report of the Secretary
  - 5. Report of the Treasurer
  - 6. Reports of Committees
  - 7. Unfinished Business
  - 8. New Business
  - 9. Certification of Election of Officers and Board of Directors
  - 10. Adjournment
- D. The membership at the Annual Meeting may direct the Board of Directors to take action concerning any and all business transactions that may have taken place.

Section 2. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

A. Regular Meetings

Written or printed notice of the date, time and place of the regular annual meeting shall be mailed or posted on the Georgia Jail Association's website for each member at least thirty –days (30) prior to such meetings.

B. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called as necessary by a simple majority of the Board.

In all cases of special meetings, the purpose of said meeting shall be stated in the notice, and only that business for which the meeting was called may be conducted. (Seven days minimum notice required.)

Special meetings may be held at any location designated by the Board. Minutes of all special meetings will be mailed to all Board members with-in two weeks after the meeting.

Section 3. SITE SELECTION FOR ANNUAL MEETING

Announcement of a site vacancy shall be made to the general membership at the annual meeting, at Board meetings, and with-in the Newsletter. Jurisdictions wishing to be considered for selection of hosting an annual meeting should submit such request to the President.

Section 4. ACTION BY DIRECTORS WITHOUT A MEETING

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action was taken, is signed by all the members of the Board of Directors. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting duly called. The signed consent, or a signed copy, shall be placed in the Minutes Books of the Association.

Section 5. TELEPHONE AND SIMILAR MEETINGS

Directors may participate in and hold a meeting by use of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment, by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other.

ARTICLE IV - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall be the governing body of the Association.

- A. The President shall be the presiding officer for all Board meetings. In his absence, the President-elect shall preside at Board meetings.
- B. The Board shall be empowered to authorize expenditures for the general business of the Association.
- C. The Board may authorize additional services and set appropriate charges.
- D. The Board may enter into any agreements with other persons or organizations for the betterment of the Association.

- E. In conducting business of the Association, the Board may conduct such business by correspondence or other means of communication as established by the President.
- F. The Board may appoint, employ, retain and supervise sufficient staff members necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Association.
- G. The Board shall act as advisory committee to the President and the Association.
- H. The Board shall receive written reports of all program activities at the annual meetings or at any special meetings when the Board deems necessary.
- I. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents of the Corporation, in addition to the officers so authorized by these Bylaws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name and on behalf of the Corporation. Such authority must be in writing and may be general or confined to specific instances.
- J. The GJA shall keep complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its Board of Directors.
- K. Regional representatives are responsible for all matters of GJA activity of interest to members with-in their region, and any region activity deemed proper for representing the interests of members with-in that region to the Board, including but not limited to, scheduling and holding meetings of members within that region in advance of regular Board meetings, so that representatives can provide RECOMMENDATIONS to the full Board in those meetings on activity in the region.

Section 1. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

- A. The Board of Directors shall consist of the Immediate Past President, the President, President-elect, First Vice-president, Second Vice- President, Third Vice-president, Secretary, Treasurer, and twelve Regional Representatives elected by the membership; two representatives from each of the five regions and two At Large representatives.
- B. Region representation is shown In Article XIV.
- C. Representatives shall be elected as follows:
  - 1. Representatives shall be elected for a term of two (2) years. One-half of all the Representative posts shall be vacated annually.
  - 2. Regional Representatives will be elected by the vote of members within the region, and at Large Representatives will be elected by the membership statewide. The nominating committee shall limit candidates for open office to no more than one candidate from any one agency for positions of regional or at-large representatives; and one for any position on the Executive Board; for a total of no more than two representatives from any one agency serving on the Board concurrently.

Candidates receiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be deemed elected.

3. In any annual election, if there are no representatives from any one of the five regions, the President shall appoint a member from that region who is willing to serve as a representative, if possible not choosing a candidate from an agency already having a member serving on the board; however, in this situation this decision shall be at the discretion of the President.

In the event there are no members in that region willing to serve as representative, the President shall appoint a member from the adjacent region to fill that vacancy. The appointment shall be subject to the same terms and conditions specified in Item 4. After a period of one year, prior to the next annual election, if there is no member from the region to fill that vacancy, the Board of Directors will review state-wide membership and recommend any appropriate amendment to these Bylaws to restructure the geographical boundaries of regions to provide for appropriate representation of all members in the region from which no representatives were elected.

4. Should a vacancy occur in the Board officers, the President should appoint a member to fill the vacancy. Except as provided in Item 3 above, the member appointed shall be from their own region. The appointment must be ratified by the Board at the next regular meeting, or by special correspondence on that issue as proposed and submitted by the President. Persons appointed to fill such vacancies and ratified by the Board shall serve until the next annual election following the first meeting of the nominating committee. Their names may be placed on the first election ballot after appointment for approval by the general membership. The nominating committee shall endeavor to provide a choice of candidates by presenting opposition for each office, where feasible.
